

The UKZN Centre for Civil Society and KwaSuka Theatre present:

Worldwide Reading

In Solidarity with Zimbabwe

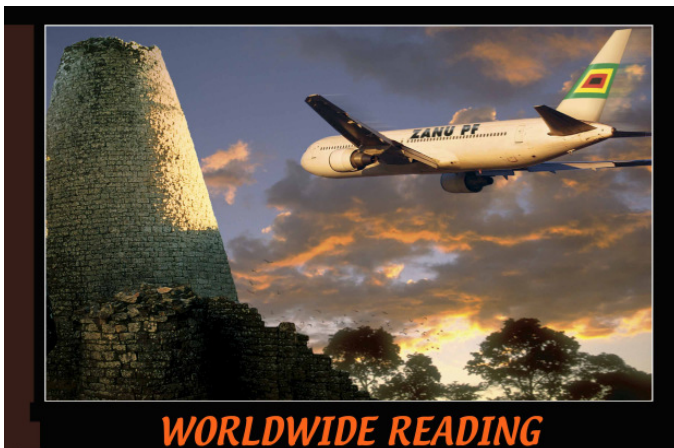

Join us for a worldwide reading by authors, poets, artists, activists: in support of social justice, democracy and freedom of expression

Sunday, 9 September, 2-5pm

KwaSuka Theatre, Stamford Hill Road, Greyville

Free Admittance – for more info call 031 260 3195

GCINA MHLOPE, GRACE KWINJEH, DENNIS BRUTUS, ASHWIN DESAI and Durban friends of Zimbabwe will join hundreds of world-renowned authors, poets, artists and activists who are gathering the world over to express concern and generate political solidarity on September 9. The event is a global one-day readathon to raise consciousness about the plight of Zimbabweans who are struggling for social justice, democracy, freedom of expression and economic survival.

Zimbabweans resident in Durban are not makwerekwere, they are our sisters and brothers, we owe them our solidarity, we accept their lessons of struggle, we give them hospitality as they gave to us for decades... and yes, we worry that 'Zimbabwe is the trailer, South Africa is the movie'!

Included will be poems by Dennis Brutus (born in Harare, 1924), Chenjerai Hove, Chirikuré Chirikuré and Dumbudzo Marachera, as well as Elinor Sisulu's foreword written for the book "Gukurahundi in Zimbabwe: A Report on the Disturbances in Matabeleland and the Midlands 1980-1988" (Johannesburg 2007).